NARRATIVE:

Fajardo, a documented Florencia 13 gang member, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 18. He has been convicted of multiple felon in possession of a firearm, multiple vehicle theft, multiple evading police: disregard for safety, assault with a deadly weapon, being under the influence of controlled substance, false identification to peace officer, and fugitive from justice. Fajardo has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, a two (2) year term for felon in possession of a firearm. Fajardo was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 27th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Fajardo absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Fajardo qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading police: disregard for safety falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang affiliation, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
